Autonomous and connected vehicles will have a significant impact on the way we live, commute and travel in the future. This Autonomous and Connected Vehicles Workshop will provide insights to the many potential benefits and challenges of these technologies and host a facilitated community discussion.

FRIDAY, JANUARY 24, 2020
10:30 AM TO 2:30 PM
THE NC ARBORETUM
EDUCATION CENTER
20 Frederick Law Olmstead Way, Asheville

NO COST AND LUNCH PROVIDED

SPONSORED BY:
Programs of Land of Sky Regional Council

Waste Reduction Partners
FRENCH BROAD RIVER
LAND-SKY CLEAN VEHICLES COALITION

SPECIAL THANKS TO:
CENTRALINA CLEAN FUELS COALITION
A US DOE CLEAN CITIES COALITION

DRAFT AGENDA

Welcome
Bill Eaker, Land of Sky Clean Vehicles Coalition

Panel Presentations

Overview of ACVs
Joe Hummer, State Traffic Management Engineer, NCDOT

Legislation and Planning
Dana Magliola, Freight Planning, NCDOT

Freight
Skip Yeakel, Director of Business Development, Volvo

Safety/Ethics
Katie Brunk, Kimley Horn

Energy Efficiency
Michael Laughlin, US DOE Vehicle Technologies Office

Lunch Provided

Breakout Roundtable Discussion
Led by Jason Wager, Centralina COG

Group Discussion

Concluding Remarks & Next Steps
Tristan Winkler, French Broad River MPO

REGISTER HERE

CLICK HERE FOR DIRECTIONS TO THE ARBORETUM